

Thanks to the following businesses, Northword Magazine is distributed free in your community. If you own a business and would like to be considered as a drop-off location, please contact editorial@northword.ca. That is also how to reach us if you want to make changes to the quantity of magazines received, or to be removed from this list. In addition to the distribution locations below, you'll also find Northword displayed at many of our advertisers.

We're currently researching distribution methods for the different communities. Give us a call at 847-4600 if you are interested as a volunteer, or in a part-time job.
